Film Studies
Three Act Structure Analysis

Directions: Watch the short film your teacher has selected. As you watch, fill out the chart and answer the statements and questions below. Your responses should indicate that you understand how the narrative was constructed and what the movie is “about”.

Film Title: ____________________________

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Act One</th>
<th>Act Two</th>
<th>Act Three</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Plot Point 1:
________________
________________
________________
________________

Plot Point 2:
________________
________________
________________
________________

1) Logline (Write a one sentence summary of the film):
   _____________________________________________________________
   _____________________________________________________________
   _____________________________________________________________
   _____________________________________________________________

2) Themes (What is the story really about? What is its universal meaning?)
   _____________________________________________________________
   _____________________________________________________________
   _____________________________________________________________
   _____________________________________________________________
The time taken to reach each of the moments may change, but ultimately the events of the three acts, and the relative size of each act, stays the same no matter what the length of the story is.

Remember: Heroes fall - often. The writer is a harsh God.